Mishkan Hanefesh Workshops

Come learn, and become familiar with our new High Holy Days Machzor

This year we will be inaugurating a new machzor (High Holy Days prayer book) for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

Mishkan Hanefesh (its name) contains new readings and interpretations of the liturgy and introduces new features into our worship. Each workshop will explore a different part of the service. Come to one or come to all. Some workshops will be repeated later in the summer.

Thursday, June 13 - 7:00-8:30pm

A New Approach to the Shofar Service. By placing each section of Shofar blasts in a different part of the Rosh Hashanah Morning Service, we connect differently with its themes. Come learn the thought process behind this distinct feature of the service.

Thursday, June 20 - 7:00-8:30pm Wrestling with Unetaneh Tokef. This lesson engages with one of the most challenging prayers in the machzor, Unetaneh Tokef. This prayer which focuses on mortality, divine judgment, destiny, and the relationship between humanity and God is rich with opportunities for discussion.
